

ORDER NO. 939³₂

November 3, 1954

IN RE: DOCKET NO. 9258 (DOCKET NO. 8275 - ORDER NO. 8584) - The matter of interpreting the term "COMMODITIES IN GENERAL":

Charlie Nabors, Clinton, South Carolina, holder of Class E Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity No. 228 B.

From the return filed and the investigation made, it appears that this carrier was actively engaged in transporting HOUSEHOLD GOODS under Class E Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity No. 228 B prior to June 11, 1952, and is, therefore, entitled to a Class E Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity authorizing the continuance of such service; therefore,

IT IS ORDERED: That Charlie Nabors, Clinton, South Carolina, be issued a Class E Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity authorizing the transportation, over irregular routes, of HOUSEHOLD GOODS (AS DEFINED IN MOTOR FREIGHT TARIFF 8-A, S.C.P.S.C.-MF No. 26, and revisions thereof) between points and places in Laurens County and between points and places in Laurens County and points and places in South Carolina. (See Class E Certificate No. 228 B)
